

Happy Organized Holiday

- Simplify your life
- Connect with your kids
- Create a joyful and meaningful holiday

Hi, I'm Nina Squillante, Professional Organizer at Happy Organized Family. Join me for a live, virtual presentation where I'll share simple and effective strategies designed to help you create and enjoy a happy, organized holiday.

Highlighting the topics of Generosity, Gifts, and Traditions, I'll share ideas that support an organized life with an emphasis on strengthening our connections with our kids.

This is not your typical "how to store wrapping paper" holiday organizing presentation (although I do have suggestions for that!)

Instead, I offer so much more: Ways to connect with your kids to inspire cooperation and create the foundation for collaboration. When your family works together, you can truly create a happy, organized home and life at the holidays and beyond.
